

GOING THE DISTANCE.

If the success of your business depends on access to global markets, North Carolina's Global TransPark has you covered. With our combination of air, rail, highways, and access to international ports, your goods can go across the street or around the world. And with our Foreign Trade Zone benefits, international commerce becomes easier, faster, and cheaper. No matter what your industry, chances are the North Carolina Global TransPark has what you are looking for.

Visit our websites for more information.