

William T. “Billy” Lamm, III

Appointed by: Speaker of the NC House

Industry: Aerospace and Aviation

Term Expires: June 30, 2017

Mr. William T. “Billy” Lamm, III, is a third generation cotton merchant and developer of the Northside Business Park in Wilson, NC. He has an extensive background in agriculture and forestry and is a graduate of Barton College. Mr. Lamm was appointed to the North Carolina Global TransPark Authority Board of Directors in August 2013 by the Speaker of the House.

Mr. Lamm’s current and previous community involvement activities include the Wilson Rotary Club, the Rocky Mount-Wilson Regional Airport Board, and an active member of his church.

He and his wife, Maggie, live in Wilson, NC and have three daughters and seven grandchildren.