

John D. Lennon

Appointed by: Governor

Industry: Banking and Finance

Term Expires: June 30, 2015

John D. Lennon is managing partner at Oceancrest Advisory Services, LLC, a special assets advisory firm headquartered in Wilmington, NC. He has an extensive background in real estate property management, asset management and real estate investment banking. His asset management experience includes a nationwide portfolio of apartment and commercial properties. Mr. Lennon was appointed to the North Carolina Global TransPark Board of Directors in August 2013 by Governor Pat McCrory.

Mr. Lennon's previous community and public service activities include serving as a member of the Mayor's Convention Center Task Force and the New Hanover County Airport Authority. He is also a former member of the Board of Trustees for First Baptist Church in Wilmington, NC. Mr. Lennon is an Eagle Scout and previously coached youth football and basketball.

He and his wife, Beth, live in Wilmington with their three children.