

John O. McNairy

Appointed by: Lenoir County Board of

Commissioners Term Expires: June 30, 2018

John O. McNairy oversees diverse holdings of agriculturally-related businesses, including interests in John Deere dealerships; agricultural chemical, fertilizer, and seed dealerships; agri-financing interests; cotton ginning; and custom farming operations. He also oversees additional family holdings ranging from transportation, subprime auto finance, real estate ventures, storage, gasoline and propane, and convenience-store businesses.

Mr. McNairy was appointed to the North Carolina Global TransPark Board of Directors in 1993 by the Lenoir County Board of Commissioners.

Mr. McNairy obtained his Bachelor's degree and Juris Doctor from the University of North Carolina. He is a member of Queen Street United Methodist Church and the Lenoir County Committee of 100. In addition to serving on the Global TransPark Board of Directors, Mr. McNairy also serves as a director for Alpha USA, Asbury Theological Seminary, Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC, W.N. Reynolds Foundation, and the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation.

He and his wife, Leigh, live in Kinston, NC. They have four children and three grandchildren.